

We offer an eco-design approach that promotes functional repurposing, aligned with the functional and circular economy, aiming to extend the lifespan of electrical equipment by providing equivalent solutions to combat obsolescence, reduce waste, and optimize resource use.